CHICAGO COURSE ON PREACHING
SUMMER INTENSIVE 2027

Working pastors need to continually make progress in their preaching. Finding opportunities to do so is difficult given the busyness of ministry life. The Summer Intensive is a three-week intensive, residential training opportunity in expositional preaching for pastors with significant Simeon Trust experience.

To qualify for the Intensive you must be a pastor who preaches at least 10 times a year. Additionally, you must have attended at least four Workshops on Biblical Exposition or taken all six online Genre Courses.

What:

- Each week focuses on a different biblical genre. The 2027 Summer Intensive will be given to the study of Epistles (Galatians), Wisdom (Ecclesiastes), and Prophets (Jeremiah).
- Instructional hours will be dedicated to genre principles, elements of persuasion, and portraits of preaching.
- Participants will complete 18 sermon preparation worksheets and preach 3 sermons in a small group setting.
- Space is limited to 12 participants.

Instructors:

Jeremy Meeks

K. Edward Copeland

Kevin Walker

Mike Bullmore

David R. Helm

When: July 5-23, 2027 - Class meets Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday

Where: Class meets at 1438 E 57th St. Chicago, IL 60637. Housing is to be secured by the student. Housing opportunities may be available for those coming alone.

Cost: $950.00

THE CHICAGO COURSE ON PREACHING